HOUSE TO LET.

"Strange that a harp of thousand strings
Should keep in tune so long."

THE subscriber has several chambers to let in his house which is beautifully located directly opposite Trinity Church Burying Ground; he will rent the rooms with furniture, or without, as may best suit the tenant. There is, probably, no more desirable spot in Newport, for those whose souls are not entirely steeped in sin, and wrapped up in the flimsy veil of this world's illusion; the occupant may sit at the window, and view the last home of man in all its mysterious and solemn grandeur, and seriously reflect upon the great uncertainty of all things human. Here he can commune with himself, and meditate, in full view of the grave yard, on the final consummation of all things, and anticipate that universal crash, when the earth shall be burned up, and the heavens be rolled together as a scroll. We must reflect upon these things here, and be prepared with our passport when we meet the last Tyler, or we shall receive the fatal mark of the black brush; why, land! what is a few day's sojourn in this miserable world, compared to a high seat in the Celestial Lodge above, where the Knighthood will be gathered in the pure robes of innocence and beauty!

In order to secure the chambers, early application should be made, to

FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1845.

The Herald man announces, in his paper of yesterday, that W. H. Cranston, Esq., is Editor of this paper,—which is unqualifiedly false, and the author had no authority to make any such announcement.—Mr. Cranston is not Editor of this paper, neither has he any control whatever, over the management of its columns. We were introduced to Mr. C. on our arrival here, and he has very kindly introduced us to some of the good people of Newport. It has been said, too, by the Herald man, (in private conversation,) that Mr. Cranston was the prime-mover in starting the News,—that he was at the bottom of the whole arrangement,—and that it was through his influence that it was started. All this is as unqualifiedly false, as the first assertion. We never saw Mr. Cranston, until we came here to make our arrangements for the publication of the News, and then we met with no better encouragement from him, than from our citizens generally, to whom we mentioned our project. Mr. C. is at present reporting the Legislative proceedings for us—otherwise he is in no way connected with the News, yet we shall be very glad to hear from him at any time. We make these remarks, in justice to Mr. Cranston, and for the purpose of exculpating him from any odium that may be cast upon this paper by the Herald man.

The Herald man wishes us abundant success, though "from his long experience in newspaper matters, he very much doubts our success." O yes, he wishes us about as much success as Satan does the virtuous. It is really laughable to witness the small operations of the Herald man. Last week, he announced his intention of publishing a Daily paper, and seriously thought that the business of the place demanded it; and now he very much doubts our success. Really, he is a modest man to suppose that he alone can establish a Daily paper, upon a permanent foundation. When he made his flourish of trumpets last week about his Daily, he very well knew that we were here with our materials, and that our first number was to appear on the following Monday; and our word for it, the good people of Newport would not have heard a word about a Daily paper from the Herald man, had he not known that we were soon to appear before the public with our sheet. He had better attend to his own affairs, and try to give his readers something new, viz: a readable paper; and also let us alone,—we are capable of managing our own affairs. And when he has occasion to speak of us again, we want he should confine his remarks to what he knows.

A NEW NOVEL.—We have in our possession the MSS. of an original story, entitled FLORENCE DALBAC, which we are reading, and are thus far much pleased with it; if the remaining portion is as good as the commencement, we shall probably lay it before our readers, at a future day. It was written some years ago, but by whom, we are unable to say, as it was found, under peculiar circumstances, by a friend of ours, who gave it to us, to prepare for the press, nearly four years since.

Among the other curiosities in town, election day, were a number of noted pick-pockets, who travel about the country, and are always sure to visit places at such times where there is to be a crowd. Several of our friends had their pocket books stolen, containing money and valuable papers.

The noise and confusion of Election has nearly subsided, and our streets are again assuming their wonted quietude and sobriety; we are really glad that this festivity has passed, for such days are extremely unpleasant.

Will those Editors to whom we have sent the News, please exchange with us? Our sheet is not as large as it might be, but at the same time, it is ample to contain all matters of local interest, and we shall always give it with promptness and despatch. And when there is anything of importance or interest, we shall invariably issue an extra, in season for the mails, so that our brethren of the press may depend upon the News, as the authentic organ of this town, in all subjects of importance.

We notice by the news from the Sandwich Islands, by a late arrival, that the whale ship Helvetia, Capt. Porter, of New London, was entirely destroyed by fire, at the above named islands. The ship was 233 tons, but 18 months out, and had on board 150 bbls. sp., and 1500 whale oil. She was insured, but the loss of the Captain and officers is nearly $25,000. The fire was extinguished once, as it was supposed, but it burst out again with increased fury; a great effort was made to save her, but all to no purpose. About 800 bbls. of oil, and some few articles on board, was all that was preserved.

The Roman Catholic Bishop of this country has given an order to Powers, the sculptor, for the execution of two seraphs, for the altar of the Cathedral in Cincinnati, a splendid and very costly structure. They are to be cut from pure Carrara.

Who ever heard of stone seraphs? We have seen real flesh and blood seraphs, in our younger days,—or at least we thought them so then, but we have since found ourselves mistaken; but this making seraphs out of stone, is worse still,—give us something more ethereal.

It is expected that the Oregon will be in condition to resume her trips to Stonington in two weeks from Monday next.

TRINITY CHURCH CLOCK.—The immense clock for the spire of Trinity Church, says the N. Y. Tribune, will be put up in about a month. It weighs about 7000 lbs., and will cost $5,000. The pendulum is twenty feet long, weighs two hundred pounds, and vibrates twenty-four times in a minute. The clock is built by Mr. Rogers, and is the largest ever constructed in the U. States.

BY THIS MORNING'S MAIL.

From the N. Y. Express.

IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO.

We have dates, by telegraph, from the army under Gen. Taylor, to the 19th of April, which announces what may be called the first act of hostilities between the opposing forces.

The blockade of Matamoras is continued, and is more strictly enforced. The schooners Equity and Florida, which left New Orleans, March 28th, for Matamoras, returned to New Orleans on the 28th ult., having been boarded off the Rio Grande by the brig Lawrence, which, with the Flirt, is off the coast, carrying out Gen. Taylor's orders, and turning back all provisions destined for Matamoras.

The steam ship Telegraph, arrived at Galveston, from Brazos, St. Jago, brings information that, on the 19th ult., as Lieut. Porter, of the 4th Regiment, was out on a fatigue party with ten men, they were surrounded by a party of about 50 Mexicans, some in uniform, and that the Lieut. and four men were shot.

This occurred very near the American camp.

Lieut. Porter was the son of the late Commodore Porter.

About 50 of our men had deserted, and several were shot when crossing the river. The rumor is confirmed that Gen. Arista is to succeed Gen. Ampudia in the command of the Mexican forces.

New-York Illustrated Magazine of Literature and Art.

Edited by LAWRENCE LADDER, and Published by WILLIAM TAYLOR, No. 2 Astor House, New-York.

THE Second Volume of the "ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE" will be commenced with the May number, and will be published about the fifteenth of April, and the success which has so far attended our enterprise has determined us to spare nothing that will insure an increased patronage. The large edition printed of the first volume was exhausted on the publication of the fourth number.

Our new volume will be commenced with a much larger edition, to secure for subscribers complete sets, and will possess INCREASED ATTRACTIONS! Great improvements will be made in our Engravings, giving FOUR SPLENDID STEEL PLATES in each number, and a variety of finely executed ILLUSTRATIONS ON WOOD! The letter-press will be of a high and refined order, original and selected, consisting of Romance, Historical Sketches, Poetry, Essays, Reviews, Biography, &c. &c. Our selections will be mostly from sources beyond the reach or means of the general reader, and no pains or expense will be spared to make it worthy the attention of every one.

The Magazine will be handsomely printed on Butler's superior paper, with bold beautiful type, and each number will contain SIXTY-FOUR LARGE OCTAVO PAGES! making two elegant volumes a year of 768 pages, (384 each,) illustrated with FORTY-EIGHT ENGRAVINGS ON STEEL! Independent of the numerous illustrations on wood.

As a LADY'S and GENTLEMAN'S Magazine, it may be welcomed by, and prove an agreeable companion to, the most fastidious.

Arrangements have been made to procure original translations from some of the most popular French authors. The press in all parts of the country have been lavish in their praises of the "Illustrated Magazine," as will be seen by the following:

The Journal of Commerce says: "The literary contents are of the most interesting character."

The Rambler says: "It is destined to be the Magazine of the country."

It is got up in a very elegant style, type, paper, engravings—all good. * * * It will prove a powerful rival among its lighter competitors.—N. Y. Evening Mirror.

Each number contains four gems of the old or new masters, besides some half a score of wood-cut illustrations of the literary contents.

Phil. Sat. Courier.

It will be a favorite for all those who look for choice pictures.—N. Y. Sunday Atlas.

Of its literary contents we need not speak, unless to say that they are "increasing rich."

One of the largest and handsomest magazines now published.—Keeseville, (N. Y.) Repub.

Decidedly one of the best periodicals of the day.—Dover, (N. H.) Gazette.

The embellishments are uncommonly elegant, both in design and execution.—N. Y. True Sun.

It is a work which ought to have a great circulation.—Noah's Weekly Messenger.

Light, graceful, pleasant reading, of a pure moral tone and mostly novel, accompanied with no less than four steel and four wood engravings, which elegantly embellish as well as illustrate the work.—Park Benjamin's Western Continent.

Those who wish a first-rate table companion, must obtain the New-York Illustrated Magazine.—Harre, (Mass.) Pat.

It contains four [steel] engravings, and a large number of wood cuts, besides sixty-four pages of excellent reading matter.—Phila. Chronicle.

One of the pleasantest periodicals of light literature published in this country.—Portland Bulletin.

Numerous other compliments might be cited, had we room.

AGENTS, and persons wishing to commence with the new volume, are requested to send in their order as soon as possible, to secure complete sets.

TERMS.—Yearly subscription, $3; two copies, $5; or five copies (to one address) $10.

All letters of subscription, and orders, addressed to Wm. Taylor, 2 Astor House.

tory vessels expels all impurities from the surface, allays every tendency to inflammation, and effectually removes all redness, Tan, Pimples, Spots, Freckles, Salt Rheum, Ring Worm, Erysipelas, Rash, and other unsightly cutaneous visitations.

PICKLES, PUT up in wine vinegar, a choice selection for family use at the Franklin Hall, corner of Thames and Fair streets. FRANK HAMNETT.

The Columbian Magazine, 1846.

Edited by JOHN INMAN and ROBERT A. WEST. IN entering upon the fifth volume of the Columbian Magazine we find ourselves somewhat perplexed as to the right execution of our task.—We have much to say of the past, but it might seem egotistical to say it; and we have much to say of the future, but we fear lest we should appear unduly to boast. On the other hand, something at this season must be said, lest we should appear ungrateful for the steadily increasing patronage bestowed upon us. Is not ours a pleasant predicament? On one hand stands the spirit of our proverbial modesty, and the moment we begin to speak of what we have done and shall do, it lays its shadowy finger upon its ghostly lips, and with other mysterious gestures frowns us into silence; on the other hand the generous public—the embodiment and impersonation of several thousands of subscribers and readers—demands that we pay tribute to their liberal patronage, that we recall the pleasures they have been wont to enjoy for now two years in our pages, and that we declare our plans for the future. We have, of course, no choice left but to exorcise the ghost of our native bashfulness. 'Tis done;—and now we will talk freely with our "dear public," of ourselves and our intentions.

How rapidly, and notwithstanding difficulties to be surmounted, how pleasantly has time sped since we tried the experiment of a new magazine in this great emporium of commerce. Two years only have elapsed, and yet our enterprise has been crowned with success, and the pages of the Columbian Magazine periodically gladden and instruct the hearts of the matchless fair ones of our own proud city and state; throwing the light of its pleasant tales and ever virtuous sentiments over many thousand family circles, fostering purest affections and teaching lessons that well might fall from mother's lips into maiden's listening ears. Already has our magazine numerous readers in every State of the Union. The shrewd and observant New Englander greets it with a hearty welcome; on summer's eve beneath shady trees, or on winter's night around the glowing hearth, many a youthful scion of a worthy sire reads aloud from its pages, while beautiful and virtuous daughters ply the willing needle, and aged sire and dame exchange approving and delighted glances. Far away in the thickly peopled West do we aid in upholding and perpetuating the refining influence of literature and art, and soothe the asperities of arduous toil and isolated life; and the sunny South greets us monthly with a frank and generous welcome. Yes, brief though our existence has been, it has neither been profitless nor joyless. We have sought to supply Americans with a magazine worthy of America, and the universal hail of welcome that has greeted us has far exceeded our expectations, while it has increased our conviction that a magazine such as we have been able to furnish, was needed for the many thousands of American readers.

We enter upon our third year with bright and cheering prospects. Every where has the press spoken in terms of high commendation, not alone of the literary contents of the Columbian, but of its unsurpassed embellishments, and never with warmer praise than during the last six months. This, with our increased circulation, we take as an acknowledgement that we have fulfilled the promises we renewed six months ago. We need not again renew them. Be it ours to do and not to boast. To those who have patronized us so far, we offer grateful thanks. We have no doubt that we shall continue to secure their approval and their good wishes. To those who, now that the NEW POSTAGE LAW is IN FULL OPERATION, and a new year is commencing, will doubtless swell the list of our patrons, we say that we have contracted for, and have in progress some of the richest and rarest embellishments, for the new volume, that have ever been produced in this country—embellishments DESIGNED as well as ENGRAVED EXPRESSLY FOR THE WORK; and that we have entered into treaty with many of the first American authors regularly to aid us by their literary labors. These arrangements have of course entailed upon us great expense, but we intend that the Columbian shall be the first—in every respect the best—of American magazines. Let there be no misapprehension on this point, and let our friends give us the return of a still larger patronage, for we WILL deserve it.

As to the past or future discharge of our editorial duties it behooves us to say little. We shall indeed but express our obligations to our numerous correspondents, and request a continuance of their favors, assuring them that they shall ever have the most courteous attention at our hands.

We have but to add that the publisher enters upon a new volume, therefore, with expectations of increased patronage. He has every reason for indulging such expectations. Increased exertions will be made to deserve it in each department of the work.

Speaking of correspondents, we refer with pride to the annexed list of those who have hitherto aided us, embodying, as it does, names that are an honor to our country's literature—those who have attained to the highest fame and others who are steadily and rapidly pressing to the same goal.
